

Tuesday's speaker was Corbett Butler, Alta-Aurelia H.S. Band Director. Between 115-125 students are involved in band and chorus this year. Mr. Butler talked about the upcoming band trip to Chicago on March. 3 days and 3 nights will be filled with sight-seeing, a performance by their jazz band at the Museum of Science and Technology, attending a performance of Mama Mia, and the Blue Man Group. On the high school level, interest in a marching band by H.S. students is growing. Other upcoming events include a Christmas concert by H.S Nov. 17th, Participation in Veteran's Day Program by both band and chorus Nov. 13., and finally the recent presentation of the play "Wizard of Oz at which 95 school kids took part.

Kiwanis business: Nov. 16--- Next pop can collection.

Nov. 20-- We are having a meeting Tuesday. Randy Erickson is the scheduled speaker.

NO MEETING -- Dec. 25 and Jan. 1

Correspondence: Letter and picture from Julie Langner, A-A library thanking Kiwanis for donation to recent Scholastic Book Fair. 50 kids were able to each receive a free book.

School library asked if our club would be interested in decorating a Christmas tree. Competition begins

Nov. 26 and ends Dec. 1. Members of our club are meeting Nov. 26 10:30am

REMINDER: Members don't forget to come to Tuesday Nov. 20 meeting. Thanks

Ken Lenz, secretary